"FAIR PLAY" ANSWERED.

The Mail Route Enigma Solved By Peter Layter, of Harrisville,

To the Editor of THE HERALD: In a late issue I notice a communication from "Fair Play," in relation to mail route let-tings, and as he desires to be enlightened upon the matter. I will say that the postmaster general of the United States issued advertise ments under date of Sept. 16, 1889, for carrying ments under dute of Sept. 16, 1889, for carrying United States mails, in New Mexico, Arizona, Utah and Idado—In ali, sir star routes. They are so called because originally designated by mistrikies, for the sake of brevity to distinguish them from rullroad or steamboat routes, on the books of the department. The first law concerning star routes was passed. March 3rd, 1861, and was re-cinacted sum, 1872.

Of these 317 routes, seconty-cight were for Utah, in the following order:

٦,	No. of Routes	Iray	reled	No.of Miles traveled each Week	05/19/24
	23 23 21 24 7	12 7 6 3 9	Do	14 369 1967 555 857 566	$ 1,000 92,000 94,000 90,600 96,900 7,000
Total	78	31		5,068	8150,8X

The decisions on these routes were to be announced on or before Peb. 20th, 1866, which in these cases occurred one month earlier, viz:
January 20th, 1886. All contracts were to be returned, duly executed, to the department within sixty days after date of acceptance of the bids.

So that B. F. Cuilic, the contractor on route No.— must have before March 1st, executed his bend. And as he desired to sublet, he was giving till April 28th, 28th, for bids to him.

These subcontracts have to be made by the consent of the postunater general of the United States, and must be executed in forms prescribed upon blank. No. 2,076 of the postument.

So "Fair Play" will see that he does not give bonds for sub-contracts only to contracter upon blanks furnished by the department and his surelies must be approved by some local post-misster.

The papers our friend "Fair Play" received for two semi-weekly routes must have been misself ancous lettings. If further answers are wanted he may write again. Yours.
